Mobile Fidelity New Silver Series LP Releases for June, 2011

MOFI 1-009 Talking Book Stevie Wonder

Numbered Limited-Edition LP
Mastered on Mobile Fidelity's World-Renowned
Mastering System and Pressed at RTI

Stevie Wonder established an incredible precedent between 1971 and 1976, releasing six of the most groundbreaking, genre-blurring, genius albums ever made. Composed and written at a time when his marriage was his collapsing, the largely uplifting and eminently soulful Talking Book is arguably the best of those trailblazing records. Wonder manages to not only to restore faith in love, he also includes smart political commentary, personal-is-political messages, empowering statements, and exorcises the frustrations associated with heartbreak. Few efforts are more emotionally intense and consistently enriching.

MOFI 1-014 Wild Planet The B52s

Numbered Limited-Edition LP
Mastered on Mobile Fidelity's World-Renowned
Mastering System and Pressed at RTI

Completely up to task in following up their kitschy debut, the B-52's step everything up a notch: Songwriting, humor, exaggeration, melodies, hooks, and group interplay. Wild Planet also finds the band embracing stronger psychedelic accents that seamlessly mesh with its lava-lamp colors and textures. What an album.

Wild Planet soars on vocal efforts put forth by the delightfully campy Cindy Wilson and Kate Pierson, whose innocent girly tonalities wonderfully match up with Fred Schneider's effeminate deliveries and manic presentations.

1. Party Out of Bounds
